A Day Trip with the Lot

Tuesday 9th Jan 2024

After everyone is picked up we will head to the Blue Barn Café for morning tea, anyone who has been with us before and stopped here will know what a great spread they put on. Now for a touch of nature, lets have a leisurely walk to the Lilydale falls, hug a tree or bring your binoculars for some bird watching or go for a skinny dip at the falls.....just joking about that last bit (Scotty put your clothes back on.....tsk tsk ). Our next stop is the Windy Park Alpacas, first up a lovely catered lunch and then off to explore the farm and animals and meet the owners of this great property. There will be time for lost of pats, cuddles and conversations with the various farm animals. On the way home, we will visit Aunita Cherries, my Favorite time of the year when the cherries are ripe, hopefully there will be some left in the bag by the time we get back. # Local Agri Legends

Wednesday 31st Jan 2024

Let's meet some of the people that deal with and grow some of our delicious local produce.

Where does it go to? What does it take to make it happen? How did the idea originate? These are just some of the questions that will be answered.
After a hot cuppa and cake to get us started we will be given a tour of the Harvest Moon factory by local girl Tundra Howe. You will be blown away by the scope of this enterprise and at this time of the year there is a lot happening, from carrots, to broccoli, to onions there will be lots of production to see. We would have worked up an appetite by now, so after the great lunch we had here last year we will be hosted again by Dalton Café in Ulverstone. Lets meet one of the farmers after lunch, the Brandsema family have made quite a name for themselves with their hot house tomatoes. We will be given a tour and talk finding out how this venture started and where it is heading in the future. Bring your walking shoes, this day will involve some stairs and a little uneven ground but will be worth the effort.

Kanamuluka

Friday 9th Feb 2024

Have you ever looked on a map at Launceston's Tamar River and noticed that the title 'river' is misleading? It is actually a saline and tidal estuary stretching some 70km from Launceston all the way to the Bass Strait. The Tamar River (Estuary)/Kanamuluka is formed by the collision of the North and South Esk Rivers. In fact the entire body of water is salty, and rises and falls with the tide of the Bass Strait. The Estuary allows ships into Bell Bay near George Town to bring in freight to Launceston making it a very important waterway. In past decades, the rivulet was heavily impacted by pollution and was effectively a dead zone with no aquatic life. Today we will learn about what changes have been made to improve the health of the Tamar River and to allow flora and fauna to flourish. Starting at the Queen Victoria Museum at their Wetlands exhibition. After lunch we will visit the Tamar Island Wetlands Centre and hear from a local guide who is full of knowledge about the unique waterways of Launceston and Tamar island which is abundant with plant and animal life. Finishing out the day with a walk along the accessible boardwalk which is flanked by tall native Tasmanian grass species which traverses along the wetlands. Keep an eye out for the diverse birdlife that is around.

All Inclusive; Coach Travel, Tour Escort, Morning Tea, Lunch, Entries.

Horses for Courses

Thursday 29th Feb 2024

Today we will meet Petrina and Nelson at Hill Top Farm Meander. Along with a very successful hip camping operation they also have a love of clydesdale horses and are collectors of horse drawn vehicles. Let's travel back in time to look at the great collection of horse drawn implements from work to pleasure and hear how they built up this collection. We will also meet the beautiful horses which Nelson still works on the farm as much as possible. A very unique day and one that doesn't come along very often. After a scrumptious two course lunch we will be visiting the beloved Melita Honey Farm. Our visit today will be different as we will be given an inside to the back story of the farm, learn about where the delicious honey is collected and what the process is to make the honey products on site. Of course there will be tastings of the wide range of honey products that Melita has to offer from the iconic leatherwood honey to the honey nougat. You will have the opportunity to wander through their stunning shop and enjoy audio, visual and interactive displays which bring the secret life of bees to life. You may even wish to purchase one or two goodies.

Highfield Historic Site

Tuesday 5th Mar 2024

Perched overlooking Stanley and the Nut on a windy promontory is the Highfield Historic site, representing a stunning example of early colonial architecture from the regency Period; 1811-1820. The site marks the first European occupation in North West Tasmania. Building commenced in 1826 by convict labour under the watchful eye of Edward Curr, chief agent of Van Diemen's Land company. Originally the property was some 350,000 acres of agricultural land which is now reduced to 9.5 acres. Today we will be treated to dramatic views of the rugged coastline of parts of the Bass Strait and the stunning town of Stanley as we wander through the homestead and surrounding buildings of Highfield Historic Site. Of course we will stop on our way for a hot cuppa with morning tea, a two course lunch at the Bridge Hotel and if time allows we may pay a visit to Mawbanna's Honey Farm. A lovely day to be had by all.

THE MUSICAL

Saturday 23rd Mar 2024

Let the games begin!

Two of the world's greatest chess masters, an American and a Russian, battle it out at the world championships, but their greatest contest is for the love of the same women. From Bangkok to Budapest, the romantic love triangle mirrors the heightened passions of the Cold War as players, lovers, politicians and spies all struggle to get the upper-hand. Caught between two world powers, the rivals go head-to-head in the game of their lives. With music by ABBA legend Bjorn Ulvaeus and Benny Anderson and lyrics by Sir Tim Rice, the dazzling contemporary pop rock score became a world-wide smash, featuring the hit singles One Night in Bangkok, Anthem and I Know Him So Well. Presented by Encore Theatre Company, Chess the Musical comes to the Princess Theatre. Before the 1:00p.m. show you will have the opportunity to purchase lunch in Launceston Mall and enjoy some of the Ukulele Jamboree Events that will be happening.

The Estate encompasses grand, parklike surroundings with magnificent gardens and a vineyard, Regency furnishings, fine silverware, horse-drawn coaches and agricultural implements. After stopping at Longford where you will have the opportunity to purchase lunch we will continue our way to Brickendon World Heritage Site. Where we will Immerse ourselves in the incredible story of the Archer family, assigned convicts, free workers and the beginnings of Australia's pastoral and agricultural industry.
